Account Agreement

The laws of the State of Maryland govern this Share Certificate Account. IRA accounts may not be used as collateral security to a loan or loans. The Credit Union retains the right to offset your indebtedness arising from a loan transaction in default and/or arising from other losses (i.e., returned checks, overdrafts, etc.) with funds from any share account except in the instance that it is an IRA account. Market USA Federal Credit Union reserves the right to reject share certificate applications that are not legible or complete. Any application received where information or directions cannot be appropriately determined will be returned to the member. Dividend rate and maturity date are contingent on receipt of a complete, legible application. A Simplifier must be completed for IRA Certificates. Funds received will be deposited into the member's S1 membership savings account until a completed application is received. The credit union will provide you with information on your dividend rate and date of maturity immediately upon receipt of your completed application. The undersigned confirms receipt of the credit union's Truth in Savings Disclosure and certificate agreement and understands and agrees to all of the terms and conditions for this account.

Joint Account Agreement (Not Applicable to IRA Certificates)

The laws of the State of Maryland govern this Share Certificate Account. Market USA Federal Credit Union is hereby authorized to recognize any of the signatures subscribed hereto in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this account. The joint owners of this account hereby agree with each other and with Market USA Federal Credit Union that all sums now paid in this account, or heretofore and hereafter paid in, by any or all of said joint owners with all accumulations thereon, are, and shall be, owned by them jointly, with right of survivorship and be subject to the withdrawal and receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them or the survivor or survivors shall be valid and discharge Market USA Federal Credit Union from liability for such payment. Unless Contrary direction is given, upon the death of a party to the account the funds shall belong to the surviving party or parties. Upon the death of the last party to this account, any funds in this account shall belong to the designated beneficiaries. Any or all of said joint owners may pledge all or any part of the shares in this account as collateral security to a loan or loans except in the instance that this is an IRA account. The Credit Union retains the right to offset your indebtedness arising from a loan transaction in default and/or arising from other losses (i.e., returned checks, overdrafts, etc.) with funds from any share account except in the instance that it is an IRA account. The undersigned confirms receipt of the credit union's Truth in Savings Disclosure and certificate agreement and understands and agrees to all of the terms and conditions for this account.
